

Biography VP

Virgile Perret completed a PhD in Political Sciences from the University of Lausanne for which he received the Award of the Social and Political Faculty in 2013. Based on an interdisciplinary approach combining contributions from international political economy and the Regulation School, his work analyses the various mechanisms allowing the money to influence citizenship in its legal as well as identity dimensions.

Author of the book « Monnaie et citoyenneté » as well as of many publications on this area, he has taught international relations during many years at the University of Lausanne. Member of the Swiss Network for International Studies of the Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies in Geneva, he has collaborated with the International Labour Office as well as the Department of Education, Youth and Culture of the State of Vaud (Canton de Vaud).

He currently collaborates with the « Observatoire de la finance » in Geneva. He is also the General Secretary of « l'Association pour Renouveler la Recherche et l'Enseignement de l'Economie et de la Finance » (AREF), founded in 2017 and based at the University of Fribourg.
