

Contrinex AG is an international manufacturer of sensors whose headquarters is located in Corminboeuf (Fribourg). By focusing firmly on innovation and technological progress, Contrinex regularly sets new standards in the sensor world. Our sensors and systems for factory automation, safety at work and RFID are constantly being adapted to the growing needs of all kinds of industries.

Junior Project Manager, Sales 80-100%

TASKS

- In close collaboration with the sales manager, you manage new customer projects and ensure that each task of the project is delivered to the customer in a timely way.
- You collaborate closely with various departments in-house such as research & development, product management, production and customer service in order to achieve the project milestones. You take appropriate measures to keep the timeline and report project advancements and issues to the sales manager.
- You create project offers and do price calculations and portfolio simulations with the involvement of the sales manager.
- You process customer order forecasts, monitor frame contracts, and ensure on time delivery of customer orders.
- You regularly interact with customers regarding our supplier performance and propose actions to improve our performance to the sales manager.

YOUR BACKGROUND

- Master's degree in one of the following fields: Engineering, Automation, Business Administration, Management, Economics
- Previous experience in sales administration, such as establishing quotes, managing orders or handling CRM systems is a strong advantage
- Fluent in French and English, German is a strong additional advantage
- Advanced level in MS-Office, with focus on Excel and Powerpoint
- Agile, organized and independent way of working paired with hands-on attitude and can-do mindset

WE OFFER

- A versatile position with multiple interactions within the company and the customer
- Interesting projects with international customers
- Teamwork in a dynamic and multicultural team
- Career opportunities in various fields and international locations
- Flexible working hours

Dominique Clément, Vice President, Human Resources
026/460.46.05

Dominique.clement@contrinex.com