The lecture covers the Ebola response 2014 to 2016 in West Africa. Part one will be an account of events, part two will provide an assessment of the response from the point of view of a World Banker. Focus will be the link between financing and delivering emergency healthcare at the frontline.