Declaration on Pregnancy and Breastfeeding

Principles  According to the directive concerning the protection of pregnant women and women during breastfeeding, pregnant and breastfeeding women (employees and students) must not be exposed to conditions that are dangerous for their health or the health of their children. This applies in particular to laboratory work. In each Department or Section, a trusted person is available to advise pregnant women and assist them in obtaining necessary adjustments.

Declaration  I hereby declare, that I read the Directive concerning the protection of pregnant women and women during breast-feeding. I commit to taking the appropriate measures to protect my pregnancy and to protect pregnant and breastfeeding women around me.

Read and understood:

Student  Last name: ...........................................  First name: ...........................................

Student N°: ..............................................................................................................................

Date: ..................................................  Signature: ..................................................

Person in charge  Last name: .................................  First name: .............................................

Date: ..................................................  Signature: ..................................................